Resolved that the same be passed.

II. Read and recorded.—

- (1.) Proceedings of Government No. 12335-C—L. F. 76-94, dated 15th March 1895, sanctioning the retention of Kotvals and Daudis of the III Class Travellers' Bungalows of the District till the end of the current official year.
- (2.) Chief Engineer's Circular No. 17 of 12th March 1895, pointing out the impolicy of multiplying local cross roads, as their up-keep in the future will be difficult and eventually become a burden on the Local Funds and that the improvement of existing cart tracks would meet all requirements.

III. Read Proceedings of Government No. 11922—L. F. 379-92, dated 8th February 1895, directing to place the matter of granting horse allowance at Rs. 10 to the two Local Fund Mestris of this District and to submit a copy of their resolution.

Resolved that the allowance recommended is fair and is absolutely necessary. A recommendation should be made to Government accordingly.

IV. Read Proceedings of Government No. 15271—L. F. 845-92, dated 20th March 1895, enquiring what would be the cost of putting in order Honnappanaidu's Chattram at Malebennur and directing to report the views of the Local Fund Board regarding the transfer of the building to the management of Government.

Resolved that the building be taken under the management of the District Fund Board and that the estimate which has been prepared and forwarded to the Executive Engineer for opinion be obtained back as early as possible and submitted to Government for sanction.

V. Read Molakalmuru Amildar's No. 214, dated 20th March 1895, reporting the death of Mr. Gadige Sannavirappa, Local Fund Member of that Taluk.

Recorded with regret.

VI. There being two vacancies on the Board, resolved that the name of the following gentleman be submitted to Government:—

Basappa of Harihar for the Davangere Taluk, and that a notice be issued to every Inamdar in the District or to his manager or agent requiring him before the end of April next to elect an Inamdar of this District as a member of this committee.

C. SRINIVASAIENGAR, Dy. Comr. and President.
